Residents of the several towns and villages throughout Portage county are asked to contribute $1,779.55, the largest amounts being from Almond village, where the total tax is $432.86.

Corporation income taxes for the entire county figure up $38,706.62, of which $10,317.67 will be placed on the city rolls. Several of the towns and villages have no corporations subject to income tax but the town of Plover is especially favored with two large institutions—the Whiting-Plover Paper Co. and the Wisconsin River Paper & Pulp Co.—whose combined income tax amounts to $36,636.76. This is exclusive of the ordinary property tax levied annually.

HAND HURT ON DAM

Fred M. Rice of Bancroft, who came here a few weeks ago to work on the new Consolidated Paper Co. dam, had his left hand badly hurt last Thursday while unloading a dump cart. He had just "tripped" a lever when the entire weight of the load caught his hand between the cart and a timber, bruising the palm and fracturing one or more of the finger bones. He will be off duty a few weeks.

AVIATOR IS KILLED

Lieut Reginald J. Calkins, the only Green Bay aviator in active service in France, was killed on the last day of the war in an aeroplane accident, according to an official telegram received last Sunday by his mother, Mrs. Bertha Calkins. The young lieutenant's father, the late L. A. Calkins, practiced law in Stevens Point some years ago, later moving to Ashland and then to Green Bay.

MALICK FARM SOLD

A. E. Dafoe and Frank C. Rathje of Chicago have purchased the equity of Fred Becklenberg in the J. P. Malick farm in Linwood township, just below the southwest city limits. This property consists of 556 acres and much of it is considered as good land as lays out of doors. What is conceded to be the best rural residence in Portage county is on the place, while the other buildings are also large and well constructed.

The new owners expect to secure a competent manager and operate the farm to its fullest capacity.

HELP TO WIPE OUT EPIDEMIC

Because of the continued spread of Spanish influenza, the Red Cross in connection with the surgeon general has perfected a plan for the purpose of fighting the epidemic. As chairman of the committee appointed by the Portage county chapter, Mrs. R. E. Walbridge is sending out notices to all the branches and auxiliaries asking their co-operation to put down the epidemic and to adopt all possible health measures. The co-operation of all health boards, officers, teachers and in fact, everyone, young and old, is asked to stamp out the disease.

PARENTS LOSE ONLY CHILD

Miss Caroline, Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Krueger, is the Latest Victim of Influenza

Miss Caroline Krueger, for the past eight years employed as saleslady at H. W. Moeschler's dry goods store, died at 9:05 o'clock last night at her home, 433 Center street. She was taken sick three weeks ago with influenza but had almost recovered from this ailment when she suffered a relapse and sank very fast during the past day or two.

Miss Krueger was born in this city 30 years ago the 11th of last December and lived here continuously. During her long employment at the Moeschler store she was recognized as one of our city's best sales people and a young lady whom everyone loved and admired. Her gracious smile and cheerful greeting will long be remembered. Miss Caroline was the only child of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Krueger, veteran residents of Stevens Point. They have the sympathy of the community in their terrible affliction.

It is expected that funeral services will be held next Saturday afternoon, conducted by Rev. Anton Held, pastor of the German M. E. church, of which congregation the deceased young lady was an ardent member.

RED CROSS OFFICERS

Much Business of Importance Transacted at Annual Meeting Last Wednesday Evening

The entire board of directors of the Portage county chapter of the Red Cross was re-elected at the annual meeting held at the library club rooms last Wednesday evening. Those who will serve again are the following: L. R. Anderson, Mrs. D. J. Leahy, Rev. James Blakê, Mrs. T. L. McGlachlin, Dr. F. A. Southwick, Dr. C. von Neupert, Jr., and C. E. Van Hecke.

At a meeting of the directors following the meeting of the members, F. S. Hyer was re-elected chairman, L. A. Pomeroy was chosen vice chairman and Mrs. D. J. Leahy, secretary. Although Mr. Hyer protested against a re-election in his case, his objection was overruled and he was chosen almost unanimously, the only dissenting vote being his own. Mrs. T. L. McGlachlin, the retiring secretary, who had presented her resignation last spring, has been doing the work of the office since then because no one else had been found to take her place, but at this time she said it was impossible to do so longer. An executive committee which will meet once a month, was then chosen as follows: W. E. Fisher, Mrs. G. E. Culver, Mrs. E. B. Robertson, H. C. Snyder and F. W. Leahy.

Another resignation was presented at the annual meeting Wednesday evening when Dr. E. H. Rogers, one of the directors and also chairman of the civilian relief committee, said emphatically that he wanted to give up both offices. He has found it impossible to get a secretary for the civilian relief work and the clerical work not being organized, many annoyances result. Dr. Rogers said he would continue to resign until his request is accepted, and Chairman Hyer promised to find someone to succeed him.

In his report submitted to the meeting Dr. Rogers said that the committee has expended $318.14 for the relief of the families of soldiers and of this sum $101.19 will be returned when the families receive their government allowance, and it is expected that a good share of the remainder expended will also be returned. The work of the committee will not diminish with the close of the war, but on the other hand will increase, as wounded and sick soldiers must be cared for and work must be found for the returning soldiers who have no jobs awaiting them.

Treasurer L. R. Anderson made his report of finances in the treasury from April 1 to Oct. 31, 1918, showing that there was $1,395.51 in the general fund at the end of that period, and since that time about $600 had been expended for material to be worked up into supplies for the Red Cross. Mr. Anderson's report follows:

At the meeting the War Chest plan for raising funds for war time charities was endorsed by a majority of those present and talks for the proposition were made by T. H. Hanna, F. S. Hyer, J. E. Delzell and Geo. B. Nelson, while appeals for a separate campaign in behalf of the Red Cross were made by W. E. Fisher and Mrs. T. L. McGlachlin. A protest from the Amherst auxiliary was also presented.

Mrs. D. J. Leahy, chairman of the branches and auxiliaries of the Portage county chapter, gave a detailed report of the work by these units and submitted figures on the membership, money in treasury and materials made up.

The annual report of Mrs. T. L. McGlachlin, secretary of the chapter, was submitted for the year ending Nov. 20, 1918, which showed the development that had been made in the work and the spirit of the organization during the period reported.

ANNUAL SALE AND SUPPER

The November committee of the Ladies' Aid of St. Stephen's church will give a supper at Knights of Columbus hall on Tuesday evening, Dec. 10, when a cordial invitation is extended to all. On that day, afternoon and evening, the annual sale conducted by the ladies of the congregation will be held. INSTALL ON DECEMBER 12

The Foresters' joint installation of officers, which was expected to take place at K. C. hall in this city tomorrow afternoon, has been postponed until Thursday evening, Dec. 12th. The courts to be represented on this occasion are the two local bodies and those at Custer, Junction City and Milladore. One or more of the state officers may attend.

RECOVERING AT FOND DU LAC

Mrs. Wm. Cauley and daughter, Mrs. Walter Leary of Custer, were called to Fond du Lac last Thursday on account of the serious illness of their daughter and sister, Miss Birdie Cauley, who underwent an operation for the removal of her appendix at St. Agnes hospital in that city the week before.

The operation was successful, but later bronchial pneumonia and pleurisy developed and her condition became serious. However, on Monday of this week word was received by local relatives that she was improving and it is expected that she may be able to return to her home next week. Her sister, Miss Hazel, accompanied her to Fond du Lac and will remain with her until she is able to come home.

FOR UNITED WAR WORK

Big Campaign is On Today—City Being Thoroughly Canvassed—Work in the County

The United War Work campaign is on. The day victory was announced everybody celebrated, and parades were had, demonstrating the fact that everyone rejoiced that the terrible war had come to a close. This did not cost us anything but our voices.

More than 1,200,000 of our men will stay in France, and the former Troop I and many other Portage county men will be included in this number. These men will have to be taken care of by the War Activities, and these boys will ask you to come across with one day's pay or one day's income. If your feet have become cold since the celebration it is an indication that you have bad heart action and that you are in a dangerous condition. Do not think that because the armistice has been signed our men will not have to be taken care of just the same as before. It is estimated that it will take several months to bring the boys across who will be mustered out in the next few weeks.

One day's income is but a small drop in the bucket as compared with what our soldiers have had to go through since they left their homes in this county. Let us not have it said by the boys who are coming home that we failed to do our duty in this drive. If we do not do our duty in this drive and raise the quota given us, they could rightfully say that Stevens Point was a bunch of slackers and was enthusiastic only when it cost nothing to be so. When the solicitors call at your different places of business and where you work, sign your name to the little slip for one day's pay or income. The next day will be Thanksgiving day, and we are sure that you will eat your Thanksgiving dinner with more relish for having done your full duty the day before.

C. H. Cashin, City Chairman.
T. H. Hanna, County Chairman.

Chairman Cashin appointed one representative for each industry and to him or her was entrusted the collection of subscriptions from employers and employes in the designated trade or profession. As suggested in the communication published above, each resident of the city is expected to contribute one day's pay or income, and equally liberal amounts are expected from residents of the villages and rural communities. It may be several days before the county canvass is completed.

PORTAGE COUNTY WINS HONORS

State Potato Show at Milwaukee Well Represented by Exhibits Entered by County Residents

Portage county is steadily making progress in potato development work. Last year the county exhibit at the state potato show took thirteenth place in the county contests. This year it was awarded sixth place among the sixteen contesting counties, a gain of more than 100 per cent. In addition to winning a place of honor, Portage county was awarded a $15 prize.

Portage county's booth exhibit consisted of ten bushels of two standard varieties, Rural New Yorkers and Triumphs, contributed by the following farmers: Louis Skoglund, L. E. Gordon, Jr., Portage County farm, Wm. Scribner, Anton Brekke, Jas. Haroldson, Obert Olstad, Ray Halverson and Glen Erickson.

Barron county won first place, Oneida second, Lincoln third, Burnett fourth, Waupaca fifth and Portage sixth. The other counties making exhibits were Marinette, Oconto, Langlade, Shawano, Taylor, Sawyer, Chippewa, Wood, Waushara and Bayfield.

Among the individual standard varieties winners Louis Skoglund exhibited Rurals, Geo. Walding Triumphs and Wm. Scribner Triumphs. Mr. Scribner won fifth place on Triumphs. The committee in charge of the exhibit was composed of Louis Skoglund, Wm. Scribner, Walter Welch and County Agent J. M. Coyner. A delegation of ten from this county attended the state show.

KILLED BY SOO TRAIN

Old Soldier Meets Instant Death Near Stockton Station Yesterday Afternoon—Wandered Away Monday

William H. Mulkins, a civil war veteran whose wife was recently fatally injured by Shaurette's truck as she was crossing Church street, also met a tragic death yesterday afternoon when he was struck by east bound Soo passenger train No. 12 a short distance west of Stockton station.

Since the death of Mrs. Mulkins, the aged man's household on Water street had been in charge of a sister, Mrs. Johnson, and because of the gentleman's feeble condition it was deemed advisable that an attendant accompany him on his occasional trips up town.

Monday afternoon one of the neighbors escorted him to a South Side barber shop and when she returned a short time later the process of shaving had not been completed. The lady had other errands to perform but when she again came back the venerable citizen had left. Diligent search for him was made but without result.

At about 5 o'clock Monday evening a farmer returning to his home near Stockton station overtook Mr. Mulkins on the road and helped him into the rig. In response to questioning, Mulkins said that he lived at or near Stockton and was on his way there. He alighted from the rig in front of the farmer's property and continued the eastward journey afoot. A. W. Breitenstein met him a few minutes later and at 10 o'clock that night the telegraph operator at Stockton station saw the aged man walking along the Soo right of way about a mile west of the depot.

No further trace of him could be learned until he was struck by the train at 2:20 o'clock the following afternoon.

One of his legs was broken, his chest crushed and his face badly bruised. Death is believed to have come almost instantly.

Coroner Boston was notified and brought the remains to this city. No inquest is deemed necessary.

Funeral services will be held at his late home, 813 Water street, at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon, Rev. G. M. Calhoun officiating, with interment in Forest cemetery.

William Henry Mulkins was born in New York state 78 years ago. The family came to Wisconsin in 1860 and located in Buena Vista, where the younger members of the household were raised and educated.

Shortly after the breaking out of the civil war William became a part of the Union army and served faithfully until peace was declared in 1865. He then returned to Buena Vista and operated a farm there, moving to the city fourteen years ago.

Surviving relatives are four brothers and three sisters, George of this city, John of Wausau, Leslie of Washington, Isaiah, whose present address is unknown, Mrs. Margaret Barlow of Reeder, N. Dak., Mrs. Lucinda Johnson and Mrs. Jas. R. Altenburg of this city.

SAILOR HAS EXCITING TRIP

Harold Bergholte, coxswain on the boat, Celebes, is spending a seven days' furlough at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Bergholte, 448 Normal avenue. He arrived in the city early Sunday morning and expects to start on his return trip tonight or tomorrow. Harold had an exciting experience on his last trip across. When about five days out from their point of destination, fire broke out amidships at about four o'clock one morning. The crew fought the fire desperately until obliged to run aground on the shores of France. Two members of the crew were gassed from an explosion that took place and Harold did not escape without receiving some of the fluid into his lungs also. This is the second memorable experience Harold has undergone during his life as a sailor. It will be remembered that he was aboard the President Lincoln when it was sunk by German sunmarines some months ago.

JOY RIDER HURT

Four young men and an automobile had a tip-over on the Jordan road, a couple of miles northeast of this city, last Monday afternoon, smashing the car top and putting the running gear out of commission. One of the boys had a wrist badly bruised and possibly suffered a broken bone. It is said that they were going at a pretty lively rate when the auto tipped over at a bend in the road.

WHERE ARE THE DUCKS

A Fowl Thief Secures a Brace From the Myers House Barn on N. Third Street Monday Night

Lost, strayed or stolen, two perfectly good ducks. They were formerly the property of Lon Myers, the Normal avenue hotel man, who had visions of a Thanksgiving feast for the members of his hostelry, but, alas, "the best laid plans," etc., often are knocked galley west. These well fed species of the fowl tribe had been in Mr. Myers' possession for several weeks and occupied comfortable and apparently secure quarters in his barn on N. Third street, where they were guarded each night by an employe of the hotel. Notwithstanding his vigilance, some party or parties gained entrance to the building Monday night and carried the quackers away.

As the flock consisted of three specimens, Lon is thankful that one was left him.

TEACHERS ENTITLED TO FULL SALARY

Decision Given Out By State Board of Public Instruction

[illegible]

Count As "Days Taught"

(c) The time during which school is closed is also counted as "days taught," in favor of the district. This means that, if the law demands that school shall be maintained for the agreed number of days (160 or 180) in order to share in the regular apportionment of special state aids, the days school was closed because of the epidemic will be counted as part of the required time. The clerk of the school board must make a clear and verified statement in his report to the county superintendent, at the close of the school-year, showing the number of days that school was closed, and the cause. This report will be transmitted by the county superintendent to the state superintendent and will be the basis of granting the usual apportionments and special aids.

(d) It is not necessary for the teacher to remain in the district, village or city where she is teaching, that the right to her salary be retained; neither can she be required to remain and perform some other work incidental to the teaching, such as cataloging library books, etc.

Must Notify Teachers

When the danger of an epidemic apparently has passed, the school officers and the local board of health should confer for the purpose of fixing a date when the schools may be opened. It then becomes the duty of the school-board to notify the teacher of the date of opening, that she may be prepared to take up her work at the time fixed.

The State Board of Health will issue an order to the local health authorities as soon as it appears from reports that danger from the epidemic is past. This order is not likely however, to be general, but will apply to those localities where it seems the disease has abated sufficiently to warrant opening the schools.

SELL 7,000 ACRE TRACT

A tract of 7,000 acres of Oneida Co. land owned by the L. Starks Co., wholesale potato dealers, was sold last week to Minneapolis capitalists, who will divide it into three cattle and sheep ranches. The new owners will commence clearing operations as soon as the weather will permit next spring. The land, which is very suitable for grazing purposes, will be well stocked with beef cattle and sheep from the west. It is located near Manson station, on the Soo line running between Rhinelander and Minneapolis.

TAKES FRENCH LEAVE

Albert Koshnick is believed to be the person guilty of a theft which took place at the Myers House the first of last week. Mr. Koshnick had made his home at the hotel during the past summer, while employed here. Leaving the hotel with his grip unexpectedly on Monday night of last week and the money disappearing that same night, naturally suspicion is cast upon Koshnick. Lon Myers, proprietor of the hotel, is the loser of [illegible] cash and $12.50 on checks, while E. A. Williams, a traveler, lost $17.50 in money.

RADIO AT CAMP DODGE

Writing a friend in this city on Nov. 19, Leon A. Radlant, former employee of The Gazette office, now with the signal corps at Camp Dodge, Iowa, says: "We are just as busy as ever and will continue to do so as though the war were still on. Perhaps we may go over yet. We are just about finished with our training, only three more weeks to go. I am a twenty word operator and am in charge of the station. We have different operating instruments, such as service buzzers, which have only one wire from station to station; then we have some radio (trench radio T. P. S.) ground induction. Instead of wire or the air, the ground is used. Then we use the telephone extensively. We put in lines and stations and [illegible] We also have the buzzer phone, a combination telephone and telegraph, only the telegraph is more like buzzer. This one is the most interesting. It has only one wire from each station and one ground. Lots of things can be picked up from the earth, for instance, we can pick up anyone talking within a radius of three miles, all telephone conversation, personal, or any sound like a telegraph, and the best of it is that one's signals cannot be picked up. It's a wonderful apparatus.

"We are now learning to ride horses, besides our other work, and have had the manual of the revolver."

FATALLY WOUNDED IN ACTION

Lieut. Varney of Marshfield, Friend and Companion of Late Lieut. Macnish, Dies Oct. 23d

Lieut. Fred L. Varney, who was [illegible] Lieut. Macnish, died in France on July 31st. He was wounded "in the leg." He was wounded [illegible] Lieut. Varney's home was at Marshfield. He is survived by his parents, four brothers and sister. Dale, a sergeant major with the marine troops at Camp Hancock, Ga., and Lyle, Donald, Ivan and Mildred.

The Marshfield News thus speaks of young Varney:

"Fred was born in Greenwood and had passed his 22nd birthday anniversary September 11 last. He was a graduate of the Greenwood high school. He came to this city with his parents about three years ago, shortly after which he enlisted in Company A, Second Wisconsin infantry, and served with it through the Mexican border campaign. After the war with Germany broke out he attended an officers' training school and won a commission as second lieutenant. He was sent to France in December, 1917, where he was believed to be the youngest American officer in that country at that time, as the papers were informed, and soon became popularly known as the 'kid trainer,' following his appointment as instructor for the remainder of the war. However, owing to the heavy casualties in the Chateau Thierry battle, he volunteered for service at the front and chose to serve under Captain Normington of this city. When Captain Normington was "gassed," Lieut. Varney took command of the company and later, on October 14, received the wounds that resulted in his death. He was spoken of as a brave officer and as one who did splendid work for his country.

CONTENTION IN ALMOND

Shipment of Hogs by Shep. Kollock Causes Some Controversy in That Section of County

The Gazette of two or three weeks ago contained an item about S. F. Kollock of Almond selling a bunch of hogs to the American Co-operative Association and received a price of more than $10 above that offered him by other buyers. The article evidently caused considerable controversy, calling forth a hot answer to S. A. Sanders, the leading stock shipper in the Almond district, who maintains, in effect, that he can and does pay as good prices as any men in the business.

Last week's issue of the Almond Press contained the following communication from Mr. Kollock:

When I had the item published in the Press and Gazette, it was not done with the intention of knocking Mr. Sanders or any one's else business, but was intended to boost the A. C. A., for which I have good reasons for doing, as I have shipped hogs, calves, chickens, potatoes and rye with the A. C. A. and have always got honest weights and a square deal; and have been extra well satisfied with the returns I have received from each shipment. Now, something must be troubling Mr. Sanders, for he came to my house before he put his little item in the Press, and asked for the figures in regard to the weights, shrinkage, price, etc., that I received from the commission house that handled my hogs, but I had never asked him for the figures he had received from any shipment he had ever made, and knowing he was opposed to the A. C. A. I refused to give him the figures and he guessed at most of his writeup in the Press. He is not a bad guesser but has another guess coming.

I have the correct figures I received for those hogs and will show them to any member of the A. C. A. who wishes to see them; they may judge for themselves which is right, Mr. Sanders or the correct figurers. Mr. Sanders claims on Oct. 21, 1918, he lost over $170.00 on a shipment of hogs. Who makes up this loss? Surely not any of us farmers who ship with the A. C. A.

S. F. Kollock.

AN IRISH KAISER OVER THERE

When the war is over, laddies,
Just take a tip from me
There will be no submarines
A diving thro' the sea;
For the father land of Kaiser Bill,
They'll be going to lick,
With Irish Lloyd George,
And the same will be a Mick.

We change the song, the "Watch Am Rhein,"
Into an Irish reel,
And we'll make the Kaiser dance it
If so inclined to feel.
For the police force of old Berlin
Will be Mugs from County Clare,
When we put an Irish Kaiser
In the palace over there.

In every German barkway
You will find a sweet colleen,
And the fields of waving sauerkraut
Will be plants of shamrock green.
No sauerkraut or sausage
When the Germans drink their suds,
But corn beef and cabbage
And good old Irish spuds.

The cantons and gas bombs,
We'll throw them all away
And make them use shelablahs
Or bricks of Irish clay.
They'll sport no iron crosses;
Sure 'tis a shamrock they will wear
When we put an Irish Kaiser
In the palace over there.

DEDICATE SERVICE FLAG

Important Event Takes Place at Normal Auditorium Last Sunday—1,190 Blue and 35 Gold Stars

Nearly every chair in the large auditorium at the Normal school was occupied last Sunday afternoon when the Portage county service flag in honor of Uncle Sam's young men and women who answered their country's call, was dedicated with impressive and appropriate ceremonies. The flag was presented by Assemblyman-elect Harold J. Weeks, whom Chairman T. H. Hanna characterized as one "whose patriotism lasts longer than the period of the war."

Mr. Hanna called the assemblage to order shortly before 3 o'clock; Rev. R. J. McLandress offered prayer and "America" was sung by the audience, led by Miss Edna Becker of the city school faculty, with accompaniment by Werner's band. The latter organization played several selections during the afternoon, the closing number being "The Star Spangled Banner," in the singing of which the audience joined heartily.

Before introducing the first speaker, Mr. Hanna told of the organization of the Portage County Memorial Association, formed for the purpose of carrying out fitting ceremonies in behalf of the boys who have gone from here in answer to the nation's call, and especially to those who have paid the supreme price.

D. E. Frost was then presented and delivered an eloquent talk—an address fraught with inspiring sentiments. It is reproduced on another page of this issue.

The second speaker was Prof. F. S. Hyer, institute conductor at the Normal, who has long been noted as one of Portage county's truest patriots and who is not at all backward in giving reasons for the "faith that is within him." Just before concluding his able discourse Mr. Hyer recited the following original lines dedicated to "The Stars Upon the Service Flag:"

On that red-bordered field of white,
Each star of deepest blue
Has meaning clear to me and you
That battle grimly for the right.
For every star, a loved man went
To face the breath of deepest hell
That those he loved might dwell
In peace and be content.

On that red-bordered field of white
The stars of cherished gold,
Mark those of a man enrolled
Among the brave who went to fight
For Freedom's cause, and freely gave
That lives that we in peace may live
The gift most precious we must give,
Or be unworthy of our brave.

On that red bordered field of white,
God keep the blue stars true,
And grant the golden stars be few.
Oh, God, our Father, give us light
To guide us through the days to be
When news of victory and death
Fall come all mingled in a breath,
Then hold us close, oh, God, to thee

The closing talk, an impromptu one, was made by Rev. S. A. Elbert, who is chuck full of enthusiasm, when it comes to boosting American ideals. He not only lauded the young men who had gone out from Portage county to fight for world democracy, but gave full meed of praise to President Wilson for his noble leadership.

The flag was then blessed by Rev. E. Croft Gear, rector of Episcopal Church of the Intercession, who read the names of the 34 young men and one young woman from this county who made the supreme sacrifice.

WOUNDED IN ACTION

Included in a recent list of casualties sent from the European war front is the name of Walton B. Cooper of Kaukauna, who was slightly wounded. The young man's father, Walter Cooper, was a boyhood resident of Stevens Point and is a brother of Wm. F. Cooper of this city. Walton served on the Mexican border with Co. G, Wisconsin national guards, and went to France with the Appleton company, now the 150th machine gun battalion.

MISSION AT THE JUNCTION

Jesuit Fathers From Toledo Conducting Services at St. Michaels Church—Flag Dedicated

Mission services commenced at the Junction City last Sunday morning when Father Malone of Toledo, Ohio, and Father [illegible] of this city, both of the Society of Jesus, began a four days' mission to the people of the parish. Special services were held every morning at 7:30 and at 9:30 and 7:30 in the evening. The sermons were interesting and the instructions were followed by a large number of the congregation who received the sacraments. On Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 the dedication of a service flag containing 100 stars in honor of the members of the congregation who entered the service of the country during the war took place. At this meeting an address in English was given by Rev. R. Pahner of this city and one in Polish by Rev. S. A. Falbert of Stevens Point. Twelve priests were guests of the pastor, Rev. A. Forysiak, on this occasion.

Young Soldier Relates Some of His Experiences as an Ambulance Driver on French Front

A. J. Cheasick, the well known commercial traveler, has received another letter from his son, Clarence, who is with the 126th motor ambulance company in France and saw much active service right up where the bullets were thickest.

Portions of Clarence's letter, which is dated Oct. 24th, will be enjoyed by our readers:

I am glad that you were pleased with the "Hun dough," and in the near future shall send you a belt buckle, a "Got Mit Uns," which I received or took from a German wounded prisoner while I happened to be at one of our advanced aid stations with my ambulance waiting or loading the wounded. Of course the shells on that particular night dropped around a bit and the Hun avions were there also; nevertheless I arrived back safely over rotten roads, full of shell holes small and large. After we arrived with the load, at the ambulance head, another car was sent up, the driver placed his car right where I had had mine and a few minutes later a shell hit it and did considerable damage. Lucky tho, neither he nor any of the patients were in it at the time. So you see we have our little "frills and thrills" in this war game also.

When you receive the belt buckle I suggest that you have it silver plated, have a leather strap made for it and you shall have the best souvenier in the world.

In the near future I shall have a seven day furlough and shall look around France a bit. I have been here about nine months and have been busy with the war game, so will fully appreciate the rest and the pleasure I shall have in seeing more new interesting sights.

With me everything is O. K., fine and dandy; trust you are the same.

FLU HOSPITAL PRO TEM

Dr. Garrett, School Physician, With Competent Nurses Caring For Cases at Normal

Owing to the fact that several of the students were suffering from influenza, and that members of the faculty feel that such students should have the very best medical attention, it was decided to use the John Francis Sims cottages temporarily as a hospital for such cases. Dr. Sarah Garrett, the Normal school physician, will give her personal services, and the meals will be furnished by the home economics department. Competent nurses will be in attendance, and for the present no large gatherings of students will be held in the school, or encouraged elsewhere.

Pres. John F. Sims will deliver the Thanksgiving day address at Wabeno His theme will be Victory and Peace, with a statement of the new problems in education now confronting the American people.

Miss Anna Johnson, now engaged in educational work in Burmah, gave an interesting description of the schools in that far away country at general exercises on Monday. It was of high importance to note the insistence on the use of the English language in the schools there, all pupils beyond the seventh grade being obliged to study all subjects in the English tongue.

Under the leadership of Prof. E. T. Smith, chairman of the committee in charge of the United War Work Campaign, the drive in the school met with success. It was reported on Monday that the school, with several of the workers yet to hand in returns, had contributed over six hundred dollars.

LIFE CRUSHED OUT

While At Work In Woods, Robert Stroik, Native of This County, Meets With Fatal Accident

Robert Stroik, who was born at Polonia, this county, met almost instant death last Thursday afternoon while at work in the woods at Bowler, Shawano county.

Stroik was engaged in decking logs at the time of the accident and was standing on top of a pile five logs high. One of the logs underneath him rolled out and, realizing his danger, Stroik jumped, but he was followed by another log which had become loosened. Stroik was caught between the two logs and although he was able to rise to his feet after extricating himself, he soon dropped to the ground prostrated and died in a few minutes.

Because of the fact that no bones were found broken, it is believed that the pressure between the logs caused injury to his heart, which brought about his death. Robert was about 19 years of age.

The boy's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Stroik, are now residents of Bad Axe, Mich. An uncle, John Stroik, resides in this city. The body was brought here from Bowler and was then taken to Polonia for burial.

DANCY BOY IN THICK OF FIGHT

Mr. and Mrs. John Mischnick of Dancy recently received a telegram from Washington stating that their son, Private William F. Mischnick, was wounded in action on August 31 and that he was in base hospital 34 A. P. O. 767 A. E. F. receiving treatment for gun shot wounds in the left thigh and leg.

William Mischnick enlisted in Company L, 127 Inf., at Rhinelander on April 15, 1917. The company drilled at Camp Douglas for several weeks and late in the fall of 1917 was sent to Camp MacArthur, Texas, for further training. At Camp MacArthur the division was given highest ranking by army inspectors and declared fit for active service in France. In February of 1918, they were sent overseas. After a few weeks spent in acclimating the men and giving them special instruction in intensified warfare the division went into the lines in the Vosges mountain sector, a short distance north of Belfort. The division was sent into active service against the Huns on a lively sector for the first time in July. At that time Private Mischnick received a slight wound on his left foot, but was able to be with his company again in a few weeks and from that time on the division was in the thick of the most terrible fighting that had taken place. It was the Badgers who took Cierges in desperate fighting during which the village changed hands nine times between the middle westerners and the German Jaegers and Prussian Guards—the Kaiser's best troops The village finally rested in Yankee hands.

OVER FOUR SCORE YEARS

After Illness of Over Four Years With Cancer of Stomach Mrs. Wm. Plummer Succumbs

Mrs. William Plummer, who had been a resident of Portage county for the past 60 years, passed away at her home, 1312 Normal avenue, last Friday noon. Mrs. Plummer had suffered with cancer of the stomach for the past four years, which resulted in her death.

Mrs. Plummer's birthplace was Norfolk, England, where she was born 87 years ago. In 1857 the marriage of Elizabeth Smith and William Plummer took place at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Smith, and shortly thereafter they emigrated to this country, coming directly to Fond du Lac. After a year's residence there they moved to Mill Creek, this county, where they made their home for some time before removing to Arnott. For the past ten years this city has been their home. Her husband is the only immediate relative surviving.

The funeral was held Monday afternoon with services at the home at 1:30 o'clock and from the Baptist church at 2 o'clock, Rev. James Blake officiating. Burial was made in Forest cemetery. The pallbearers were Robert Wilson, Ira Barker, J. A. Bremmer, Rupert Ward, John O'Keefe and D. R. Dean.

MEMORIAL DEDICATED

United States Flag Formally Presented at Church Service Last Sunday In Honor of Local Officer

The dedication of the memorial flag presented to the Church of the Intercession by Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Cook and son Ralph in honor of the late Lieutenant George Macnish, was beautifully and impressively carried out at the regular late morning service at the church last Sunday. The memorial is a handsome silk United States flag of regulation army size, about four by six feet. A representation of the local state guards was in attendance at the service.

With a prayer Father Gear dedicated the flag and then delivered a splendid tribute to the young man who gave up his life for his country and in whose honor the memorial was given. Lieutenant Macnish was both a soldier of his country and a soldier of the church, he said, and there was no conflict between the two. He had been dedicated as a soldier of Christ at the font of baptism and his last years were spent as a soldier of his country. Because he was a Christian, he made a better soldier of his country, the essence of patriotism being found in religious teachings, and in the war now closing Christianity did not fail, as predicted at the beginning of the conflict. Christian nations, standing for higher things, fought and won the war. Belgium, France, England and the United States, all with love of justice and righteousness, are Christian nations. On the other hand, Germany, the country from which has emanated the materialistic philosophy and destructive criticism of religion and the bible, is not a Christian nation and stood for the things which are irreligious.

Father Gear then reviewed the life of Lieutenant Macnish, the things he stood for and died for. The testimony of comrades, officers and men, and that of nurses, obtained from letters, showed that he was a man of good Christian character and cheerful in his devotion to duty. He unselfishly devoted his life to a great cause and died for it. Had he been living in the time of Christ upon earth, he would have been glad to carry the cross for Christ on his way to Calvary as did Simon of Cyrene, for he went to war in the same spirit. And the same unselfish sacrifice has been made by his loved ones, who have given their all to the great cause.

With an appeal to all to emulate the spirit of the young soldier to live and fight for ideals, Father Gear closed with the following poem:

If Tomorrow

Oh, if tomorrow brings what all today
I feared,
The fateful message of a loved one dead
In horror-haunted France, whose fields
lie black and seared;
Let me remember—not what he has said,
Nor what his youth and beauty were
to me;
But all those others, whose dear
ones have bled.
Let me remember, God, in that great hour of pain
That I must hide my little grief
away,
Lest I forget to think of those whose sons are slain,
And yet who turn with quivering
lips to say,
"Thy will be done." Let me remember then,
In that sad hour, to turn to Thee
and pray.
And when some day those whom Thy mighty hand hath spared
Shall come once more, let me remember, too,
The joy of others, and the pride in these who dared;
Let me be glad, and smile as they will do,
Glad in my heart that I could give my all—
My very dearest—glad that he proved true.

Mrs. J. R. Whittaker left last night for Manitowoc where she will spend Thanksgiving at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Walter Jens.

Wm. J. Gavin, Jr., who enlisted in the navy some time ago and recently has been stationed at Portsmouth, Va., spent the first of the week at the W. F. Fisher home on Monroe street. He left last night for Mellen to spend the balance of his furlough at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Gavin. Will is convalescing from a serious attack of influenza and pneumonia. He will be obliged to report back to headquarters about the 16th of December before being able to receive his discharge.

BAND FAIR A SUCCESS

The receipts of the band fair held at the Armory last week amounted to about $1,600 and the organization expects to clear about $500. The fair was held on Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday nights and attracted large crowds each night. Dancing was indulged in the latter part of the evening on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. Prizes were given away each night, including money, coal, shotguns and wearing apparel.

SCHOOLS AID WAR WORK

Victory Boys and Victory Girls Make Pledges to Earn and Give to Soldiers' Funds

Splendid results have been achieved through the organization of the Victory Boys and Victory Girls in the schools of the city. Mrs. C. F. Watson, who has general charge of the organization of the "earn and give" clubs throughout the county, is well pleased with the results already reported from the city schools, and pledges reported from the Normal, parochial and grade schools up to last evening, amounted to nearly $1,400 to be turned over to the United War Work campaign.

At the Normal school where the work was in charge of Prof. E. T. Smith and Miss Florence Pierce, enthusiasm was aroused for the campaign by a "four minute" program each day, for the past week, when talks were made by faculty and students, and on one day tableaux were given. When pledges were counted, it was found that $603.25 had been subscribed by the students, and with the faculty donations, a total of approximately $800 will be turned in from the Normal. Only six students out of the entire body failed to subscribe and the rural department subscribed 100 per cent.

The parochial schools will contribute $280.20. Mrs. F. A. Krembs was in charge of the organization of the clubs in these schools. St. Stephen's reported $140.85; St. Peter's, $114.85, and St. Joseph's, $24.50. From St. Peter's school the third, fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth grades turned in a 100 per cent report.

Supt. H. C. Snyder has had general charge of the public schools organizations, with the principal of each school in direct charge of their particular building. The eighth grades have made a 100 per cent report, and the returns from all of the grade schools reveal a subscription of $487.-32. This is exclusive of the High school, which has not yet reported.

It is probable that an honor emblem, a memento of the war, will be given the schools subscribing 100 per cent.

Rev. James Blake, Wm. Parker, John T. Duval, A. A. Peabody, L. H. Elchlepp and Arnold Viertel drove to Almond Monday night in the Parker car for the purpose of attending a meeting there of the Mens' Club of the Baptist church. Rev. Blake was on the program for a talk at the gathering.

Thanksgiving

Liberty loving America pauses in this war wasted world for a day, to observe the custom inaugurated by our Pilgrim fore-fathers. It warmly can welcome the promise of peace, because that shall mean right rather than might, kindliness rather than kulter, brotherhood rather than barbarism, democracy rather than autocracy, humanity rather than brutality.

Truly all of us are thankful that a better order of things shall be left a heritage to following generations and are sincere in that thanks for the opportunity each has been given, to make his personal sacrifice on the high altar of civilization. Inspired by such thoughts, America pledges its power for a permanent peace on this feast day of freedom.

A new kind of Thanksgiving

YOU'VE never seen just such a Thanksgiving Day as you'll have this year; you've never had so much to be thankful for, no matter what you've gained or lost in the past months.

This time Thanksgiving ought to be more than an expression of our personal gratification; it ought not to have any cloud of our personal loss.

Let us give thanks that the world is being made safe for Liberty, for freedom of conscience, for political restoration of the peoples of Europe. The greatest era has dawned; the greatest events of history are now moving.

We can be thankful that we have enough to eat; a good many people whose hunger is as real as ours, haven't enough.

Let us be thankful, too, for the brave men and women who have given all they have to winning the triumph of Liberty; those who may return to us; those who have laid their lives down.

Let us consecrate ourselves to the great cause of international brotherhood.

To Avoid and Relieve Influenza

BY DR. FRANKLIN DUANE.

Many people have been frightened by what they have read or heard of influenza. The more you fear the disease, the surer you are to get it. Go right about your business and forget it. As the disease is spread principally by contact thru sneezing, coughing or spitting, many health authorities have advised that everyone wear a gauze, which is daily washed and saturated with a one to five hundred solution of zinc sulphate in water, and then dried before wearing over the nose and mouth. You should avoid crowds, common drinking cups and public towels. Keep your strength up by taking lots of exercise in the open air and plenty of nourishing food.

If you have any of such symptoms as chilliness, nasal obstructions, flushed face, headache, feverishness, restlessness, weakness, or irritating cough, give up work at once and go to bed. This will save your strength to help overcome the disease. Put your feet in hot water for fifteen minutes. Thoroughly loosen the bowels with some such mild and non-irritating physic as Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. Drink principally of hot lemonade and then cover up with plenty of clothes in bed so as to get a good sweat. When sweating is free and the fever reduced take a dose of two Anuric Tablets every four hours, followed by drinking at least a glass or two of hot water. Anuric Tablets help quickly to relieve the soreness of the muscles and bones from which most patients complain and help the kidneys flush out the poisons.

To relieve nasal obstructions and excessive discharge from the nose, probably nothing is better than such a mild, soothing, antiseptic wash as Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. It will give great relief. Employed as a gargle, in same strength as made up for use in the nose, and as hot as can be borne, it quickly arrests soreness and dryness in the throat.

Influenza weakens the patient's resistance to disease, so that there is danger of bronchitis and pneumonia developing. To combat this tendency and fortify the patients's strength insist that he keep in bed at least two days. Probably nothing will at this stage hasten the recovery and strengthen the patient more than an iron-tonic tablet called "Irontic" or that well known herbal tonic, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, which has been used by thousands in the past two generations.

The Fellow who argued with Jim the other night ran up against the shock of his life.

Jim knows tobacco. And before he got through, Jim made the fellow admit that Real Gravely tastes better and gives a satisfaction you can't get out of ordinary tobacco. A small chew of Gravely lasts so much longer that it costs nothing extra to chew this class of tobacco.

It goes further—that's why you can get the good taste of this class of tobacco without extra cost.

OUR TEAM OUTCLASSED

In the Stevens Point Normal-Lawrence college football game staged at Appleton last Saturday afternoon, the locals were the losers, the game ending with a score of 63 to 0. With 430 men enrolled in the Students' Army Training corps of the Appleton college, that institution had an abundance of material to select from and their team this year may be matched up with the best in the state. Our boys fought bravely, however, and prevented their opponents from scoring in the first half. Lawrence has the best team this year that it has had for some time, and has had 97 men out for practice this season.

184 SOLDIER BOYS

Sixty-eight Now in State Guards, While 116 High School Students Are Taking Military Drill

Uniforms for a portion of the 116 High school boys who are taking military drill were received here this week and the balance are expected to follow in a few days. When the juvenile soldiers are completely equipped they will make a decidedly nifty appearance and add greatly to the success of public gatherings, parades, etc., in which they may be called upon to assist.

Co. M of the state guards has its full quota of 68 men, making, with the High school contingent, a total of 184. When they marched through Main street and to the public square last Monday evening, they surely made an impression that was pleasing to everyone who saw them.

Stevens Pointers should be, and we believe are, proud of its military company and will give substantial evidence of such pride at any and all opportune times.

LIVED ONLY FEW HOURS

Mrs. Henry Bergholte, Stricken Last Wednesday Afternoon, Passed Away Early That Evening

Last week's Gazette noted the sudden and dangerous illness of Mrs. Henry Bergholte, who was stricken with hemorrhage of the brain at her home on Normal avenue shortly after 1 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. She lapsed into unconsciousness almost immediately and died at about six o'clock that evening. As Mrs. Bergholte had seemingly enjoyed good health the news of her sudden and untimely death came as a distinct shock and the grief burdened family were given every evidence of the sympathy that all felt.

Mrs. Bergholte had attended to her usual household duties that morning and even during the noon hour gave no evidence of approaching illness. The bursting of a blood vessel in the brain was announced as the direct cause of her death.

Frances Harvey was born in Stevens Point 52 years ago the 10th of this month and had been a continuous resident of this city. She was married at St. Stephen's church on April 26th, 1886, to Henry Bergholte and ever since that time had lived in this city, and a good share of the time at the present home, 408 Normal avenue, where Mrs. Bergholte was born. Mr. and Mrs. Bergholte were the parents of two children, Henrietta, for the past couple of years supervisor of domestic science in the High school at Loyal, Clark county and a son who died in infancy.

Shortly after her mother's condition was realized, telephone messages were sent to Loyal and the daughter was brought here by automobile that evening by S. O. Onsahl, teacher of agriculture in the village schools, and Ernest Slayton, another friend. Miss Louella Meter, another member of the Loyal faculty, came down Friday and remained for the funeral.

Relatives here from a distance included the deceased lady's sister, Mrs. Mary Leary of Minneapolis; her brothers, Chas. Harvey of Brainerd, Minn., and William Harvey of Portage; two nieces, Mrs. Geo. J. Thiele of Green Bay and Mrs. Floyd Elliott of Fond du Lac; Mrs. Wm. Bergholte of Oshkosh.

Other near relatives are Jas. Lamb and Herbert Harvey of this city brothers; Mrs. Frank Matthews of Burnside, Conn.; Mrs. Henry F. Gutsch of Los Angeles, Cal., and Mrs. Frank Abb of this city, sisters, and her aged father, Ralph Harvey, who observed his 97th birthday on July 4th last.

Mrs. Bergholte's mother died in Janury, 1911, and her youngest sister, Mrs. Kellogg Bahner was buried here last spring.

Funeral services were held at St. Stephen's church at 9 o'clock Saturday morning, with interment in the parish cemetery. Those serving as pallbearers were Wm. Moll, G. M. Houlehan, Alex Bergholte, Jr., John Schmidt, Louis A. Krembs and Jos. Peck.

The old friends who have known this good lady since her childhood and girlhood days always held her in the highest regard and recognized that she truly was one of nature's noble women. Her taking away in the very prime of life is indeed a sad blow to the husband, daughter, aged father and other near relatives.

YOUNG MATRON DIES

After a three weeks' illness with lobar pneumonia, Mrs. Frank Wisniewski passed away at her home in the town of Plover last Sunday.

Mrs. Wisniewski was a native of Portage county and was 29 years of age at the time of her death. She is survived by her husband and four children, Frank, Emma, Herbim and Casimir. Her mother, Mrs. Frank Galikowski of Custer, six sisters, and three brothers also remain to mourn her death.

Funeral services were held from St. Bronislava's church at Plover at nine o'clock this morning with interment in the parish cemetery.

DIED AT REEDER, N. DAKOTA

After Serving In Army For Twelve Years, Walter Gotchy Recently Was Honorably Discharged

Homer Gotchy received a message last Monday informing him of the death of his younger son, Walter Wallace Gotchy, which occurred at Reeder, N. Dak., where he had been only a few months at the home of his uncle, F. L. Gotchy.

It was expected that the body would be brought here for burial and arrangements were being made, when another telegram was received on Tuesday saying that the body could not be shipped and that the remains were buried at Reeder, that day. The cause of death is not known here.

Walter Wallace Gotchy was born in this city 27 years ago next December 1st and he attended the local schools. Twelve years ago he enlisted in the army at Ft. Snelling, Minn., and served until last spring, when he received an honorable discharge from Camp Grant, where he had been serving as a captain, his discharge being given because of disability. He then visited in this city for five weeks and went from here to La Crosse to visit his mother before going west.

He is survived by his father, Homer Gotchy of this city, his mother, Mrs. Mary Gotchy of La Crosse, one brother, Norman Gotchy of this city, and two sisters, Mrs. Olive Buck of La Crosse and Mrs. C. F. Lahn of Grand Rapids.

CARD OF THANKS

Our deepest gratitude is extended to the many kind friends who by their kind acts and words of sympathy during the illness and after the death of our beloved mother, made our grief less hard to bear. Especial thanks are extended the employes of the Bukolt Manf. Co. and to those who contributed flowers.

ON FINAL WEEK'S WORK

Portage County Board of Supervisors Expect to Close Annual Session Next Friday or Saturday

From present indications the 1918 session of the Portage county Board of Supervisors will be able to vote final adjournment not later than next Saturday noon, and may be able to finish as early as Friday.

Important business disposed of during the past week is noted in the following paragraphs:

County Clerk Bourn, in his annual report, itemizes expenditures for various supplies amounting to $2,200.27.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Kankrud were unanimously re-elected as superintendent and matron of the county farm near Amherst Junction and Dr. G. E. Dusenbury of Amherst was chosen as physician for this institution.

The honor of being chosen to membership on the county farm committee is an eagerly sought one, judging from the large number of ballots taken last Thursday. The first two ballots resulted in the election of Wm. Loftis of Lanark and four others were taken before Jos. Laszewski of Hull and Bert Shank'in of Amherst completed the committee.

A petition from the town of Belmont asked that it be reimbursed in the sum of $282.56, this being one-half the cost of a bridge recently completed there. Amherst Junction village asked state aid for road work to be done within its limits. Both requests were referred to a committee.

The board adopted a resolution that the county pay no bills unless the same are itemized and sworn to.

The sheriff's charges against the county for the past year amounted to $2,640.05.

An appropriation of $200 was made to the Wisconsin Children's Home Society of Wisconsin. The first motion was for $400, but this was defeated.

It is quite likely that the board will appropriate $25 per month towards paying the salary of a stenographer for the district attorney. A resolution reciting that no increase in this officer's salary had been made for sixteen years and that therefore an appropriation to pay part of his office expenses is just and proper, was introduced by Supervisor C. F. Martin of Almond.

Taxes to be levied for school purposes amount to $36,959.90, of which the city's share is $9,564.80, or about 30%.

Expenditures made during the past year to maintain the county buildings and grounds in this city amounted to $615.35.

Three hundred dollars was paid out for the burial of soldiers and soldiers' widows, in response to a law that each county must appropriate $50 on the death of a civil war veteran or his wife.

At the 1917 session of the board the sum of $1,000 was set aside as council of defense fund, but the members of this latter body broke all precedents in the expenditure of only a quarter of this amount, their total payments aggregating $255.24, leaving a balance on hand Nov. 1st of $744.76. A complete and detailed report was submitted by Chairman G. L. Park, Secretary A. E. Bourn and Mrs. D. J. Leahy, chairman of the woman's committee.

County Treasurer Newby's annual report showed receipts and disbursements of $295,466.54, leaving a balance on hand Nov. 1st of $72,247.15.

Reports were also submitted yesterday by the county superintendent of schools and traveling library board.

The Citizens National bank was again made county depository upon their offer to pay 1½% interest on daily balances of $5,000 or over.

A portion of this afternoon was devoted by the board to an inspection of the jail and sheriff's residence.

The proposition to employ a visiting nurse for the rural and graded schools was brought up Tuesday afternoon, but a majority of the members declined to favor the idea at this time. However, at today's session a resolution was adopted that at the annual township and village meetings next April, the expression of the voters be taken and the proposed employment of a nurse definitely decided next fall.

Whether or not the people favor a successor to County Agricultural Agent Coyner will also be brought up in April, as per a resolution passed today.

The sum of $25 per month for clerk hire for the district attorney was granted and the salary of Miss Ruth McCallum, assistant to County Clerk Bourn, was raised from $50 to $60 per month.

The Soo line may be able to buy a strip off the county farm, from which the railroad company will ship gravel, provided an agreement can be made as to the location of the pit. The piece of land first asked by the Soo is close to the county buildings and therefore the railroad's offer was declined.

The election of three members of the county highway committee occupied a good portion of this afternoon's session, finally resulting in the selection of Ben Halverson of New Hope, F. B. Dent of Belmont and Walter Campbell of Carson.

Robert Normington, who enlisted in the Students' Army Training corps at the University of Minnesota, Minneapolis, and has enrolled in the premedic course, spent the week end at the home of his parents in this city.

FATAL ACCIDENT AT FOUNDRY

Young Man Crushed to Death Leaves Widow and Four Small Children

While at work at the Railway Materials company plant last Thursday afternoon, Anton Kuwyske received fatal injuries and died on his way to St. Michael's hospital. He received his injuries at 3:15 o'clock and died a half hour later.

Kuwyske was assisting on one of the furnaces for which the company had contracted with the U. S. government, when the braces holding the wall on which he was working gave way and he was buried beneath 2,500 pounds of steel. His legs were broken and his body crushed. He was taken to the hospital but when it was found that he had died, the body was removed to the Boston Undertaking parlors, where it was prepared for burial.

Anton Kuwyske was 29 years of age. He is survived by his wife, two children and two step-children. The children are Genevieve and Raymond Piotrowski and Chester and Eleanor Kuwyske.

The funeral was held from St. Stanislaus church Monday morning with interment in the parish cemetery.

Just Think of It!

Think of the endless litigation which will probably be started when the meek inherit the earth.

TRIBUTE TO OUR BOYS

Eloquent Address by D. E. Frost at Dedication of Portage County Service Flag Last Sunday

After urgent pleading that his address deserves much wider publicity than that given it last Sunday afternoon when the Portage county service flag was dedicated at the Normal school, D. E. Frost has favored The Gazette with a copy of his eloquent tribute to the young men and women who so heroically went forth to fight the nation's battles or to care for the sick and wounded. Mr. Frost spoke as follows:

When the savagery of mediaeval ages, the barbarism of brute force, and the insane doctrine of world dominion or downfall, confronted the civilization of the 20th century, the question: "Shall democracy perish from the earth," trembled upon the lips of every lover of liberty.

The thinking people of Britain and France, the scholars, were acquainted with the strange doctrines of autocracy, absolutism and militarism, and they knew that the day was coming; they knew the toast so often drunk to "The Day" was not the mere idle jest of a drunken braggart, but was the serious ambition of a great ruthless power to impose her will upon the world.

For years they had listened to these teachings—teachings so fundamentally wrong; bearing great seeds of mischief; misleading and molding a great empire of 70 millions; and indirectly thru vassal states, 200 million.—And permit me to read them here today, because it is those teachings that put every star upon that flag; that causes this meeting here today, and that caused the untimely deaths of ten million souls and more, the world over.

For long years they had listened to teachings such as these:

The Kaiser said to his soldiers: "You should have no will of your own; you should all have but one will and that is my will; there is but one law for you and that is mine. You must even shoot down your fathers and mothers at my order."

"Only one master is in the land; that am I; whoever opposes me I will smash in pieces."

Professors and politicians join in:

Prof. Sombert declares war the holiest thing on earth. "It is immoral not to have wars; all progress comes from wars."

Von Moltke: "Perpetual peace is only a dream and not even a beautiful dream."

All preached that German kultur must be promulgated by the sword.

The great scientist, Haeckel, said: "One highly cultivated German represents a higher intellectual and moral life value than hundreds of the raw children of nature whom England and France, Russia and Italy oppose to him."

Teachers, 3,500 of them of the higher educational institutions of Germany, issue a manifesto, in which they declare: "Our belief is that the salvation of the whole civilization of Europe depends upon the victory which German militarism is about to achieve."

Kaiser again says: "The German people are the chosen of God. On me the spirit of God has descended. I am His weapon, His sword, His vice regent." Again: "God the Father is reserved for the personal use of the Emperor."

Local Anzeiger speaks of "A God who belongs to us alone, and who is not ashamed to belong to us."

Marshal von der Goltz: "There is no place for pity in the German soldier's heart; it is better to let a hundred women and children belonging to the enemy die of hunger than to let a single German soldier suffer."

German war poetry taught that the German nation was so far above and beyond all other nations that they should feel well cared for when they were allowed to fight with dogs for the crumbs that fall from her table.

The great journalist, Maximilian Harden: "Every ascent to a higher mental culture impairs the barbaric energy of warriors and encumbers them with scrunles which damp their joyous courage." (Note the language; we expected better things from this war).

Doctor Printz Phillippe in a sermon in Berlin, preached that the divine mission of Germany is to crucify humanity.

Dr. Seeburg, professor of theology at Marburg, says: "We do not hate our enemies; no, we obey the divine command to love them. When we kill them, when we burn their homes and overrun their territories, we are performing a labor of love."

The harvest was to be; the fruitage had to come and no wonder Kitchener predicted a long war, a war lasting from three to five years.

Finally the storm broke, the war came on; European civilization girded itself for battle; and Brittania was there with her navy.

"Brittania rules the waves
Britons never will be slaves."

And again:

"Without one friend, above all foes,
Brittania gives the world repose."

And again in the incomparable lines of Kipling:

"Never the lotus closes, never the wild fowl wake,
But a soul goes out on the east wind that dies for England's sake—
Man, or woman or suckling, mother or bride or maid,
Because on the bones of the English, the English flag is stayed."

Britain's navy sought out and sunk every enemy vessel upon the sea; she blockaded every port; she bottled up and kept bottled for four long years, the Kaiser's pride—his navy. She threw her "contemptible little army" across the channel into France, and helped stay the military giant in his march on Paris and the channel ports.

Then came "Kitchener's mob," three million volunteers, the greatest number ever raised without conscription by any nation on the earth.

We know the rest; how they fought for four long years, with bulldog tenacity, their backs against the wall, dying where they stood, one million of their best blood lying beneath the sod on France's sunny fields, and Brittannia, Brittannia, saved the day and won the war.

But hold, there is France—LaBelle France—

"Gay, sprightly land of mirth and social ease, Pleased with thyself, whom all the world can please."

France, unjustly called "decadent France;" you fought the fight; you kent the faith; you were bled white; more than a million of your best blood died; your mothers are widows; your nation is in mourning; your beautiful fields one vast cemetery; yet, you never wavered, and finally on your sainted brow you feel the laurel wreath of victory press down, and France, La Belle France, won the war.

But what of Italy, land of poetic fold and classic ground?

"Italy, Italy, thou who art doomed to wear
The fatal gift of beauty.
Ah, would that thou wert stronger, or less fair,
That they might fear thee more, or love thee less."

Your daring poets conquered the air and fought the enemy from above the clouds; and your matchless armies scaled the mountain heights, and mingled the eagles of state with the eagles of the Alps; and you furnished an impregnable bulwark against the enemy entering the back door of France, and Italy, Italy, won the war.

But, there is Russia; dreamy, slow, lumbering Russia.

She threw her millions, half fed, half armed, furnishing cannon fodder for the highly organized enemy, losing three and one-half millions in killed, but holding a large enemy army in the east and giving Britain and France a breathing spell, and Russia, Russia, won the war.

But, there is America—the Giant of the West.

"Westward the course of Empire takes its way.
Time's noblest offspring is its last."
—America.

Slow, careful, desiring to be more than fair and neutral; gradually seeing and feeling more and more wherein right was assailed by brutal might—suffering insult after insult—our men, women and children murdered and lying at the bottom of the sea; finally flaming into war; 100 million strong; functioning in perfect order; piloting the air; annihilating distance; bridging the ocean with food and men; performing unheard of feats; America, the "pinch hitter" of the world; America won the war.

The tricolor of France, the Union Jack of Britain, the Eagles of Italy and America—all won the war.

The Celt, the Scot, the Anglo—the Saxon, the Latin, the Roman, the Slav.

Patriotism knows no national, no racial lines; the blood of every clime and country is on that flag, and the melting pot of time has commingled the blood of every race and clime in the veins of each and all.

And, further the time will come when our erstwhile enemies will say; that they too, won the war; that they "are victors who were vanquished by the right."

But, "blood was water and money was leaves" and all seemed vain, until one unified command, under that great French military genius, kept up such constant hammer blows that the Kaiser and his hordes were crushed; and thrones tottered, and kings are going day by day, and now the "heavens arch and bend" without a Kaiser and without a slave.

And the Kaiser: "But yesterday his word might have stood against the world; now, none so poor to do him reverence."

And nothing grand or majestic in his fall; but rather he slinks away, like a common felon, in the night, in fear of the assassin's bullet.

And the wonder of history will be that a great nation could be so deluded and deceived, as to worship such clay of so common, coarse and cuel kind.

Attilla and Nero must yield to him; he is the archcriminal of the ages; the most hated of mankind. History will so record him.

Portage county helped win the war; and in doing so she furnished soldiers in numbers as represented by the stars upon that beautiful service flag, so kindly given by a public spirited citizen of Stevens Point; and we are met here today, to dedicate that flag to the brave men who went forth to fight for liberty.

It is very fitting and proper that we do this; and following the thought of that masterpiece of simple, Anglo-Saxon, Lincoln's Gettysburg address—in a larger sense, we cannot dedicate, we cannot consecrate, we cannot hallow this flag.

It is they, these 1,525 sons of Portage county, the living and the dead, who consecrate, who hallow this flag. It remains for us to so live that we carry on and perpetuate what they have fought and won for us.

Note the flag, how it bears upon its folds the colors emblematic of our soldiers' lives.

The red, emblem of sacrifice; the white, emblem of purity, the blue of loyalty. They possessed all these qualities and more.

Kindly note the 1,490 stars upon it; 1,490 stars for the living; these we shall meet again, man to man, and face to face, and learn from their own lips "the dangers they have passed," and they may look into our hearts, and they can feel the honest thrill that only heroes have a right to know and feel.

But, the golden stars, what of them? They are gone from us and forever.

But it matters not how, or when or where they died, "In the quiet of prison camp, on the hospital bed of pain, on the long and weary march, or in the whirl wind of the charge, where men are iron, with nerves of steel."

You 35 sainted souls; you died for your country; you died for us; you were our neighbors; we knew you best, and your epitaphs are written in our heart of hearts.

You are gone from us and forever. The leaves may fall; the winds may sigh above your graves; the seasons come and go; but you will sleep on and forever, each in his "windowless palace of rest."

But not so fast, for Faith, Hope and Immortality bespeak a roll-call on another shore—a brighter place than this—where all will answer "here."

And along the line of Robert Emmet's sentiment: "If the spirits of our illustrious dead are permitted to participate in the cares and concerns of this transitory life," then, oh, departed hero friends, kindly look down upon your kindred left behind, and bear witness to the homage we pay you in the consecration of this beautiful emblem to your sainted memories.

In conclusion:

"A mighty nation mourns thee yet;
Thy gallant crew—their awful fate:
And Justice points her finger straight
Lest we forget—lest we forget."

HIT BY 'FLU AND 'FIRE

Daughter of Well Known McDill Resident Tells of Relief Given To Sufferers

Mrs. Kate Baker Harris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Baker of McDill, and whose husband is a former resident of Jordan, writes from her home at Camp Van Vac, Ely, Minnesota, as follows:

"I'm sorry to know that the 'flu' is taking such heavy toll in Stevens Point and vicinity. Ely has been hard hit as well, has 800 cases at present and there have been 25 deaths. We are about six miles out on the shore of Burntside Lake and have escaped both the 'flu' and the terrible fire. One Ely girl, a teacher at Kettle River, was numbered among the missing and probably perished as searchers have been unable to find any trace of her after a month's search.

"Temporary homes have been found or built for almost all of the fire sufferers, some being re-established in their old locations and others having taken employment and residence in Duluth or Superior for the winter, intending to go on their farms again in the spring.

"Influenza has claimed many victims in the burned region but Red Cross nurses are now working with the doctors and there is sufficient number to insure care for all.

"The relief work has been carried on with the utmost efficiency and dispatch, thanks to the fact that Red Cross, Home Guard and Motor Corps were all thoroughly organized and in readiness for instant service. Boxes of clothing ready for shipment to France and Belgium were turned over to the relief committee at once and the women of Duluth, Superior and the Range towns have been sewing day and night and Sundays ever since to provide clothing and bedding for winter. It has been an experience never to be forgotten."

Mrs. Harris enclosed the following clipping from The Duluth News Tribune's edition of Nov. 5, which will prove interesting:

Wausau, Wis., November 4.—What some of the Marathon county boys who have gone to war think of the recent action of the board of education in retaining the teaching of German in the high school, at Wausau, may be ascertained from the following letter written by Franklin E. Gritzmacher, himself of German descent:

"Camp Greenleaf, Chickamauga Park, Ga.—We are proud and delighted to hear that the school board has decided to continue German in the Wausau high school. Nothing they could have done could have pleased us fellows more; we men who are preparing to put our bodies between German steel and our beloved homes that they might be preserved for democracy, especially we men who are in the medical branch.

"You know we don't fight and we carry no weapons. Our work is to save, to help lessen pain and care for the wounded, to save life whether they be friend or foe. In other wars with civilized nations the Red Cross was respected and both sides did as much as possible to help them. They withheld their fire. The Germans not only refused to withold their fire, but they have taken a fiendish delight in 'picking 'em off.' So our work has become the most hazardous, as we supply sport for the Huns. We can't fight. We can only do our duty and trust to luck.

"No wonder we are glad to hear that the 'kultured language' of the baby-killers, crucifiers of men and rapers of women is to be propagated in free America through our public school system. Of course, we were glad to hear that German will be taught in our Wausau high school. We'll be glad to pay taxes to pay teachers to teach the gentle culture of the gentle baby-sabering Hun.

"But let's give the country to the kaiser, hang his portrait on the courthouse framed with red, white and blue lights. We'll 'sprechen Deutsch' and teach the babies to lisp 'hoch der kaiser' in the cradle. We'll sing the Wacht am Rhein and then we'll give a speech to the departing 'selects' who go to protect our women and children from Germany. And as they march bravely by, some never to return, we'll clap our hands and make them believe we are real patriots and that we really intend to back them up.

"Patriots like h—l! We are proud of the school board and we're proud of the citizens who are backing them up.

"I presume the German course will include 'Glueck Auf,' which we had when I took German in high school, a little book with a picture of the kaiser and a very laudatory biography of that Hunnish gentleman. I would suggest that they add a few more paragraphs to that sketch, about the sinking of the Lusitania, the bombing of American hospitals with the killing of helpless American wounded soldiers, the bayonetting of children and unspeakable degradation forced on captured American nurses. It will do the gentleman great credit and German citizens of Wausau can take great pride in it. Let's go."

ELECT CLASS OFFICERS

At a meeting of the Freshman class of the local High school held recently, the following officers were chosen for the year:

President—Francis Knope.
Vice-Pres.—Harriet Hyer.
Secretary—Kathleen Clifford.
Treasurer—John Siebert.
Sergeant-at-arms—Tom Hanna.

Members of the faculty who were chosen to act as advisors are the Misses Helen Hubbell and Esther Glassner.

HOLDS GOVERNMENT POSITION

Some Departments In Washington Will Soon Be Discontinued, Says Former Local Young Lady

Miss Vera Kheil is one of the numerous young ladies from all over the United States who are holding government positions in Washington, D. C. She is with the purchasing department, which, now that the war is nearing an end, will undoubtedly be discontinued soon. Miss Kheil likes her work and likes Washington and it is possible that she may be transferred to another department later.

She is a daughter of Mrs. John Kheil, formerly of this city and Fond du Lac, who is now living with her son, Rev. F. Xavier Kheil at Walsh, Marinette county. The young lady has written an interesting letter to her cousin, Miss Marie Berens of this city, extracts from which we publish below:

"Our office moved in the new Munitions building the first of the week. You ought to see this building. It is three stories high, but we have no elevators. It is composed of eight wings and covers four city blocks. The front of the building is solid and two blocks long and when you walk around to the back you can see the wings and each wing is divided off into ever so many offices. The Navy has a building just about the same. It is located on the same side of the street but across a street. The Navy building has nine wings. We have an outside room facing a street and can see the Lincoln Memorial from the window. We are just a little way from the Potomac river and are really only a few blocks from the heart of the city and walk past the White House almost every day on our way to work. My rooming place is quite a distance from the office but a number of the girls there work in the same building and we usually walk down in the morning and take the car home at night. The cars here are always so crowded that one is considered fortunate to get a seat. To get into these offices you have to have a pass and show it to every guard that you happen to meet. If you happen to forget your pass you are supposed to go home and get it, even though the guard knows you, for they think you maye have given it to someone else. * * * * *

"Even though the war is over, there is a lot of work here for a while, but of course they won't need all of us and I suppose before long we will be given a discharge. I would really like to stay until next summer for there are so many places around here that I want to see before I go West. Aren't you happy to think there is no more fighting going on? The people here in Washington simply went wild, the streets down town swarmed with people and they screamed, blew horns and threw paper. It was a regular carnival. Last Monday night they had bon-fires on the Ellipse, just back of the White House. Each state had a fire of its own and we gathered around the Wisconsin stand and sang songs and gave the University yells, but there was such a crowd it was hard to find anybody. I saw several that I knew. Then they threw the huge search light on Washington monument. It was simply beautiful to see the monument all lighted against the darkness all around. An aero-plane was up in the sky above us and it flew in the rays of the search lights. It was quite thrilling. We see a lot of aero-planes flying over the city. Monday afternoon there were seven of them flying over our heads and one of them performed all sorts of feats for us. One day last week at recess time an observation balloon passed over us and threw down some Red Cross pamphlets and all the time it was in the air an aero-plane kept flying above, below and all around the balloon. That was the first time that I ever saw an observation balloon. We often hear a buzzing noise like a bee flying near your ear and looking up we see an aero-plane above us. There are several air mail routes out of Washington. * * * * *

"Last night I attended a performance of the 'Wanderer.' Oh! it was great. The scenery, coloring effects and acting were simply wonderful. Every actor was a star and there was nothing crude in the whole play. It is a Biblical story of the Prodigal Son. In the first scene there is a whole flock of live sheep that come winding over and down the hills and across the stage. It is really a sad play—every one was crying. The acting was so fine you couldn't help but feel the terrible pain of the mother and her love and forgiveness. Last week I was at a concert given by the Paris Symphony Orchestra. That is a very fine orchestra and the playing was beyond anything I have ever heard. They gave two concerts while here and sold out houses for both performances. The soloist was a French pianist and he was especially good. Last week Schuman-Heinck was in town and sang at two different mass-meetings held to boost the War-Work campaign. I managed to get to both of these meetings, one of which was given in the Y. M. C. A. Liberty Hut and the other at noon on the south steps of the Treasury building. There was a movie taken of the one given out of doors and I know I am on it, but perhaps you couldn't distinguish me. Am right in front of Madame but standing about twenty feet back in the crowd. We also had some fine talks at both of the meetings and best of all they were free. We get quite a few free treats on the campaigns.

"Am taking a little French at night school twice a week. Of course all I will know about French at the end of the ten lessons won't be much, but we will get an idea of the pronunciation of French words and then we will meet different people. There are seven of us on the third floor of the boarding house who are taking French, so that makes it quite nice. I imagine when the boys come back from France they will have picked up quite a little French conversation. I wonder how long it will be before they do come back. I know some of them are mighty anxious to get back to the dear old U. S. A. I imagine they will keep a great many of them in France for police duty. * * * A great many girls are leaving Washington, too, now to take up jobs at home. We don't know how long our jobs will last here. The government will need a great many to finish up the work, but of course they can consolidate a number of departments as soon as peace is declared and then they can do the work with less help.

"We just came in from our recess and had a cup of dandy hot cocoa. During the influenza epidemic, the War department issued an order that all sections were to have fifteen minute recesses morning and afternoon and down here at the Munitions building they serve all the office help with hot cocoa. They feel that this has helped a great deal in preventing the flu, but I suppose the practice may soon be done away with now that the epidemic is over. But, Oh! it tastes so good right in the middle of the session. They have a very fine cafeteria in one of the wings of the building and you can get the best things to eat and quite reasonable, too. Before they opened up, I went through their kitchen and everything is so up to date. You ought to see the huge kettle for mashing potatoes and the other kettles and immense stoves. You see they have to feed thousands of people every day. Along the sides of the room they have a trough, the bottom of which is a wide belt that keeps moving along on rollers all the time, and the dirty dishes and trays are just put into this trough and go marching right up to the dish-washing place all by themselves."

BOGALUSA

"I, too," writes John Bemer Crosby from Chicago, "have seen the advertising of Bogalusa, La., and with you have choked delightedly on its euphony. I thought at first it must be a new device for the propagation of euthanasia, but I also found it was a city." Mr. Crosby then reports that the word has crept into the language.

Students at the University of Illinois, so runs this fascinating account, have a brand new slang word to describe hugeness or strength in the superlative degree. Among these quick-witted young gentlemen was one who observed many train loads of great clean Southern pine timbers, three or four feet square and longer than any freight car, traveling past Champaign, the college town each timber bearing the magic word, BOGALUSA, in large letters. And forthwith this word was added to his vocabulary. Thus it was that bogalusa took its college degree of B. A. (big article). No longer at the U. of I. is a big anybody or a big anything referred to in endearing terms as a big hod, or a big ox, or a truckhorse, or a whale. They say, "He's a regular bogalusa!" or "Oh, you big bogalusa!"

The word is splendidly expressive, and perhaps because it stands for one of the finest of the majestic Southern pines, the term implies no malice. In fact, it is something of a compliment to be called a bogalusa of a fellow.

COUNTY AGENT LEAVES

County Agent and Mrs. J. M. Coyner expect to leave for their new home at Jefferson next Saturday, and the many friends they have made since living in Stevens Point regret their departure.

Mr. Coyner came here two years ago last March to look after Portage county's agricultural interests and was the county's first agent. Interest in scientific farming has increased since his coming and he has been especially successful in junior club work. It was owing to this fact that he was offered his new position in Jefferson county when a search was made for the "best junior club man in the United States."

Mr. and Mrs. Coyner were married in the summer of 1916 and came here to live in August of that year. Both have worked faithfully along civic lines and their leaving will be a loss to the community.

A STEVENS POINT MAN'S EXPERIENCE

Can you doubt the evidence of this Stevens Point citizen?

You can verify Stevens Point endorsement.

Read this:

J. B. Marshall, 302 Monroe street, says: "A year ago last summer I had trouble from a dull pain across my back and I think it was brought on by a strain from lifting. The trouble caused me a great deal of annoyance. Knowing that one of my neighbors recommended Doan's Kidney Pills highly, I tried them. They relieved me quickly and soon rid me of the pain entirely. Doan's went right to the seat of the trouble and strengthened my kidneys. I can say that Doan's Kidney Pills are all they are claimed to be."

STEVENS POINT MEN HONORED

Three Young Men in Training at Camp Hancock Win Second Lieutenancy Commissions

Among those who were recommended for commissions at Camp Hancock, Augusta, Ga., recently are Florian Bannach, E. J. Waterman and Clarence Hass. Mr. Bannach left here about five months ago, four of which have been spent at the Georgia camp. He has worked his way up from private to ordnance sergeant and now has been further honored. He is a star on the ordnance football team. Mr. Bannach's parents reside at Custer.

E. J. Waterman was manual training instructor at the local Normal before entering the service and he also holds the position of ordnance sergeant at the present time.

Mr. Hass is a former resident of this city, but the family now live in Chicago. His father, Charles F. Hass, was at one time in business on the South Side.

DIED ABOARD SHIP

Announcement that her son, Private Emil Stinson, had died of tuberculosis while aboard ship returning from France, was received by Mrs. George Stinson of Alban on November 15th. He died on November 6th. His body was brought home for burial and laid to rest in Alban cemetery.

SELLING MANY HOLSTEINS

T. J. Pitt, former chairman of Eau Pleine township and who is still interested in a stock farm there, is now located at Fremont but makes occasional trips to Portage county to look after a herd of choice Holsteins, of which he is justly proud. The cattle raised on Mr. Pitt's place are recognized as among the best in the Holstein class and he has no difficulty in disposing of his surplus stock at high prices. A few days ago he sold five cows for shipment to southwestern Missouri and buyers from other states also purchased several head last week. "The demand for my product is something fierce this fall," is the way Mr. Pitt expresses it.

The influenza has about spent itself in this locality after calling on nearly every family and nearly every member in the family, and all at the same time. Fortunately there was not one death. Only one case of pneumonia developed, that of Felix Kress, and he is recovering nicely. Other localities are not so fortunate and there are many deaths. Around Rudolph it has been especially fatal, but the worst is past and we hope there will be no further recurrence of it.

BARTLESVILLE HIT HARD

Oklahoma City Has Awful Siege of Influenza—Former Stevens Point Lady in Charge of Relief Work

Dr. R. D. Rood of Bartlesville, Oklahoma, was here Monday and yesterday to visit his brother and sister, Dr. M. G. and Miss Katharine Rood, while enroute to New York on a business trip.

Stevens Pointers have reason to believe that the recent epidemic of influenza was a serious one in this locality, but it could by no means be compared to the siege experienced at Bartlesville, a town of less than 10,000 people. It is estimated that 3,000 had the flu in more or less serious form and the deaths from this cause and resultant pneumonia numbered 175 within about six weeks' time.

Emergency hospitals were established in public buildings, accommodations being provided for 250 to 300 at a time, and hundreds of volunteer nurses were pressed into service.

The organization of and directing this work was entrusted to Mrs. Rood, and although the task was a herculean one she accomplished it wonderfully well and received the merited thanks of the people of that city.

"FLU" VACCINE

The use of this vaccine is also in the treatment of an ordinary cold, Tonsilitis, Ear, Bronchial and Pulmonary infection, and also in conferring immunity against an attack. In most cases, use of this vaccine will prevent spread of the infection to the deeper air passages where the condition may become chronic

Why live in fear of this dreaded infection when you are able to prevent it?

Have every member of your family immune to the Flu. Get a package at once (as the supply is limited) and have your family physician use it.

IN EXPLANATION OF THE HARD COAL SITUATION THIS SUMMER

The government took control of all the coal in 1917 and for the year 1918, they made April 1st as the beginning of the season and dealers were told they would get about 87 per cent of their 1916 purchases and orders to be filled as soon as coal was available in the rotation that they came in. Orders up to six tons could be filled in full, but over that only two-thirds of the order could be delivered on the first delivery. A little later, on finding that conditions were not getting better, this rule was modified and at one time three tons was the limit and later it was cut down to two tons for heaters and at the present time one ton to a customer until everyone gets some to start on

Now of course, those people whose order was under six tons, and who were among the earliest buyers, received all of their coal, and to those who got their deliveries after the new order was out got only the 1, 2 or 3 tons. We want to say to the people of Stevens Point that we have done everything in our power to get coal and every order taken has been delivered in its regular turn. This was a hard summer and it may be a hard winter so far as the coal situation is concerned. The government asked the co-operation of the coal dealers and we have tried to do as we were told.

Some customers feel that they have been unjustly treated but we could not do other than we have and every ton of coal handled by us has gone out in accordance to the wishes of the Fuel Administration.
